

Anti Ragging Policies & Committee

Mechanism and Composition of the Anti-Ragging Committee

The Anti-Ragging Committee operates as a 24x7 body, ensuring prompt action is taken either upon receiving a complaint or proactively when any such incident comes to light. Students who experience or witness ragging can report it to any committee member at any time, even during late-night hours. The institute maintains a strict zero-tolerance policy towards ragging in any form.

Given the close-knit nature of the campus, students are encouraged to approach any faculty member, even if they are not part of the committee. Faculty members are committed to taking immediate preliminary action and will escalate the matter to the committee at the earliest opportunity. Thanks to rigorous monitoring and enforcement of policies, the institute has successfully maintained a ragging-free environment.

The Anti-Ragging Committee convenes immediately upon receiving a complaint and also meets at least once a month, regardless of whether any formal complaints have been lodged, to review and ensure continued vigilance.
